

*“Everybody has to believe in something...
I believe I’ll have another drink”.*

W. C. Fields

C

Prince of Wales	11
Gently sweetened English sparkling wine with cognac and orange liqueur
Chilean Lavender Fizz	9
A variation of Henry's fabulous cocktail from the 19th Century. Pisco, lavender and citrus
Passionfruit Martini	10
Fresh passionfruit and vanilla, accompanied with a small side of sparkling wine
Pear and Cardamom SideCar	9
A locally inspired variation on the Ritz classic mix of cognac, orange liqueur and lemon
Chocolate Espresso Martini	9
A modern classic flavoured with an excellent chocolate liqueur
Ginger and Chilli Margarita	9
A slightly spicy twist to a 'Daisy' that was very popular in America during prohibition
Negroni	10
A variation of an 'Americano' with bitter orange and gin. "The bitters are excellent for your liver, the gin is bad for you. They balance each other" Orson Welles in 1947

Drinks are priced by the alcohol content, all cocktails have at least 50ml.
Staff are more than happy to disclose exact recipes.

C

- Caipirinha 9
Made with a sugar juice distillate from Brazil and simply complimented with lime and brown sugar. Feel free to ask for flavoured versions, we have interesting homemade syrups, juices and excellent liqueurs. Start with the classic, and invent your own
- Royal Kings Mojito 10
Soda is replaced with sparkling wine for this massively popular rum and mint cocktail
- Raspberry and Violet Collins 9
A floral representation of Old Tom's recipe for a refreshing gin cocktail. Although...it's actually Jim's recipe, feel free to debate it.
- Pina Colada 9
Roberto Cofresí deserves to be immortalised on every classic cocktail menu. Here's our homage to this fabulous classic
- Lemongrass Mai Tai 9
Essentially a long daiquiri enhanced with lemongrass and almond flavours
- Sherry Cobbler 9
Apparently loved by Charles Dickens. Punches, citrus and fortified wine drinks were very popular in the mid 1800s. A reflective taste of that time
- Kings Spritz 11
Lashings of Kings Ginger - a driving drink made for Edward VII - with English sparkling wine and a light bitter finish. Royal but simple, can be enjoyed at any time; except while driving

